

Sale d'Arte

Category: Museum

business description: The Art Rooms present a collection of works that share a link with the town of Alessandria, its territory, its people and the historical and cultural moments that have left their mark.
There are several sections:

The first, "Le Stanze di Artù e l'immagine del Medioevo alessandrino", displays the interesting frescoes dating from the late 14th century, inspired by the famous Breton cycle and come from Cascina Torre in Frugarolo. The route, which from the entrance leads to the frescoes, offers a reconstruction of medieval life in Alessandria through a series of panels that highlight the architectural traces and painters of the town close to its foundation.

The Art Rooms host temporary exhibitions during the year (for information refer to the single dedicated events).

The works by the artist Giovanni Migliara (1785–1837) that illustrate the different themes he dealt with during his career, giving visitors the opportunity to grasp the typical characteristic of 19th century vedute and landscape paintings, are not currently on show to the public.

From 30 April to 16 August 2026, the Art rooms will showcase more than 100 works by the artist Mario Annone.

Open Thursday to Sunday, from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. Open on 15th August.

At the end of the exhibition, the Rooms will remain open to visitors while awaiting the installation of new exhibition displays.

on Saturday and Sunday (from the weekend of the 22 August and up to the weekend of 30 August, to admire the cycle of medieval frescoes, the so-called King Arthur Rooms.
